- On a community level - raise awareness and advocate for Asian women population.
- AACS will continue the women wellness group.

Feedback:
“This group really changed my life in America, I feel like my life is colorful again and I make good friends here. I finally find a group of people to share my feelings, life stories and give me support”

“My son and daughter are so proud of me. They are glad to see I am happy and having fun. I gave the paper flower that we made in our session to my son’s teacher, she was so happy. It seems like I have the ability to pass the happiness to others.”

Partnership:
Asian American Community Services is a non-profit organization designed to improve the well-being and quality of life of Asian Americans and Asian immigrant families in Ohio by providing social services and empowering individuals through education, training and leadership.

Purpose:
To facilitate service projects to benefit the Columbus and Athens communities, and simultaneously develop emerging professionals who have the skills to address unmet health-related needs throughout their careers.

“Start early to instill in your students awareness that they are on this earth to help and serve others; that is as important to pass on to them as knowledge.”
— Albert Schweitzer, PhD, MD
